

Do I Have to File?

Requirements for Most People

Read down the first column to find your filing status at the end of 2003. Read across to find your age at the end of 2003, and the number of dependents you are entitled to claim for 2003. You must file a return if either your California gross income or your California adjusted gross income was more than the amount shown for your filing status, age, and number of dependents.

Even if you do not have a filing requirement based on the chart below, you should file a return to get a refund if California state income tax was withheld from your pay, or if you made California estimated tax payments. Try e-file! It's fast, easy and convenient, and there are several free options. Go to www.ftb.ca.gov for the details.

<sup>1</sup> California gross income is all income you received in the form of money, goods, property, and services from all sources that are not exempt from tax. Gross income does not include any adjustments or deductions.
<sup>2</sup> California adjusted gross income is your federal adjusted gross income from all sources reduced or increased by all California income adjustments.
<sup>4</sup> The income of both spouses must be combined; both spouses may be required to file a return even if only one spouse had income over the amounts listed.
<sup>6</sup> If your 65th birthday is on January 1, 2004, you are considered to be age 65 on December 31, 2003.

Requirements for Children With Investment Income

California law is the same as federal law for the income of children under age 14. For each child under age 14 who received more than $1,500 of investment income in 2003, complete Form 540 and form FTB 3800, Tax Computation for Children Under Age 14 with Investment Income, to figure the tax on a separate Form 540 for your child.

Note: If you qualify, you may elect to report your child's income of $7,500 or less (but not less than $750) on your return by completing form FTB 3803, Parents' Election to Report Child's Interest and Dividends. To make this election, your child's income must be only from interest and/or dividends. See "Order Forms and Publications" on the back cover.

Other Situations When You Must File

- Tax for children under age 14 who have investment income greater than $1,500 (see paragraph above);
- Alternative minimum tax;
- Recapture taxes;
- Deferred tax on certain installment obligations; or
- Tax on an accumulation distribution from a trust.
