COMMENTS:

This bill would require the Franchise Tax Board to administer a tax and penalty amnesty program.

The provisions of the bill would have a significant impact upon the department and would result in the department identifying significant concerns. As a result, the author has indicated that this bill will be substantially amended. Department staff is working with the author's staff to create a bill that can be implemented by the department. No analysis of the bill will be provided at this time. Instead, the department will analyze the bill once it is amended.
