COMMENTS:

The May 17, 2005, amendments added language to state legislative findings that any limitations to the public's right to access that would be made under this bill serves a compelling interest of the state to protect an individual's personal or financial information.

This bill would prohibit the release of personal information to the general public that is provided for use in BOE proceedings unless required or authorized by law. This bill does not impact the department's procedures or practices related to disclosure or board proceedings.
