COMMENTS:

The June 13, 2007, amendments deleted the income tax provisions that would have allowed certain charitable organizations to distribute payments to the family members of firefighters killed in the Esperanza fire by deeming such payments as made in furtherance of the charitable purpose of those organizations. The amendments added language to regulate campaign financing and related matters, including placing limits on campaign contributions. As a result of the amendments, this bill no longer impacts the department’s programs and operations or state income tax revenue. The department’s analysis of the bill as amended January 18, 2007, no longer applies.
