SUMMARY

This bill would modify provisions of the Government Code pertaining to the Attorney General’s (AG’s) duties.

COMMENTS:

The August 10, 2010, amendments removed all of the bill’s provisions, which related to the AG’s authority to represent state agencies, commissions, and employees, and replaced them with provisions that would make technical, non-substantive changes to provisions of the Government Code pertaining to the AG’s duties. These changes would not impact the department’s programs, operations, or state income tax revenue.
