COMMENTS:

The March 16, 2009, amendments removed provisions requiring state agencies to post specific financial data on their Web sites and replaced it with provisions requiring the Office of the Financial Information System to post specified financial information on its Web site. The March 16, 2009, amendments removed the bill’s provisions from the scope of the department’s responsibilities, and the bill would no longer impact department programs, operations, costs or state income tax revenues.
