COMMENTS:

This bill would make technical, non-substantive changes to a provision of the Revenue and Taxation Code pertaining to the California Military Family Relief Fund.

Specifically, this bill would:

1. Amend the name of the organization receiving money allocated from the California Military Family Relief Fund,
2. Change the name of the governing agreement for awarding grants from this fund, and
3. Appoint the members who would develop this agreement.

These amendments, and the bill as introduced February 25, 2009, would not impact the department’s programs or operations, or state income tax revenues.
