

Instructions for Form FTB 3578

Pending Audit Tax Deposit Voucher for Limited Liability Companies (LLCs)

Important Information

In 2005, California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 19041.5 was amended to replace the "deposit in the nature of a cash bond" provisions to conform with Internal Revenue Code Section 6603 "cash deposit" provisions.

Use form FTB 3578, Pending Audit Tax Deposit Voucher for LLCs, to make a tax deposit payment for previously filed returns if the Limited Liability Companies (LLCs) anticipate owing an additional California fee or tax for its nonconsenting nonresident members due to a federal audit, a state audit, or other reasons.

Do not use this voucher to pay the LLC annual tax, LLC fee, or for automatic extension. Instead, use form FTB 3522, LLC Tax Voucher, form FTB 3536, Estimated Fee for LLCs, or form FTB 3537, Payment for Automatic Extension for LLCs.

General Information

The Franchise Tax Board (FTB) receives tax deposits from LLCs who previously filed their tax returns and expect to owe a future tax liability for a specific taxable year. In general, LLCs make tax deposits to stop the accrual of underpayment interest. The FTB will consider the LLC's payment as a tax deposit only if the LLC filed a return for that taxable year. For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov and search for FTB Notice 2005-6.

A Purpose

Use form FTB 3578 to make a tax deposit payment to satisfy a future tax liability for previously filed returns. See General Information D, When to File, for more information. Use the voucher below if paying with a check or money order payment only.

If there is a final balance due on the LLC's account, the FTB will first apply the payment to satisfy any final balance due for the same taxable year. Any remaining amount will be held as a tax deposit.

B Web Pay

LLCs can make payments electronically at the FTB's website using Web Pay. After a one-time online registration, LLCs can make an immediate payment or schedule payments up to a year in advance. For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov and search for web pay.
