Innocent Joint Filer Relief

You may qualify for relief from liability for tax on a joint tax return if (1) there is an understatement of tax because your spouse/RDP omitted income or claimed false deductions or credits, (2) you are divorced, legally separated, terminated your registered domestic partnership, or no longer living with your spouse/RDP, and (3) given all the facts and circumstances, it would be unfair to hold you liable for the tax. For more information, get FTB Pub. 705, Innocent Joint Filer – Relief From Paying California Income Taxes, at ftb.ca.gov, or by calling 916.845.7072, Monday - Friday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

California Use Tax General Information

The use tax has been in effect in California since July 1, 1935. It applies to purchases from out-of-state sellers and is similar to the sales tax paid on purchases you make in California. If you have not already paid all use tax due to the State Board of Equalization, you must report and pay the use tax due on your state income tax return. See the following information and the instructions for line 25 of your income tax return.

In general, you must pay California use tax on purchases made from out of state (for example, by telephone, over the Internet, by mail, or in person) if:

- The seller does not collect California sales or use tax, and
- You use, give away, store, or consume the item in this state.

Example: You live in California and purchase a dining table from a company in North Carolina. The company ships the table from North Carolina to your home for your use and does not charge California sales or use tax. You owe use tax for the purchase.

Complete the Use Tax Worksheet on page 8 to calculate the amount due.

Extensions to file. If you request an extension to file your income tax return, wait until you file your tax return to report your purchases subject to use tax and make your use tax payment.

Penalty. Failure to timely report and pay the use tax due may result in the assessment of penalties.

Changes in use tax reported. Do not file an Amended Income Tax Return to revise the use tax previously reported. If you have changes to the amount of use tax previously reported on the original tax return, contact the State Board of Equalization.

For assistance with your use tax questions, go to boe.ca.gov or call their Taxpayer Information Section at 800.400.7115, or California Relay Service (CRS) number 711 (for hearing and speech disabilities). Income tax information is not available at this number.
