Instructions for Form 541-A

Trust Accumulation of Charitable Amounts

References in these instructions are to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as of January 1, 2009, and to the California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC).

General Information

In general, for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2010, California law conforms to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as of January 1, 2009. However, there are continuing differences between California and federal law. When California conforms to federal tax law changes, we do not always adopt all of the changes made at the federal level. For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov and search for conformity. Additional information can be found in FTB Pub. 1001, Supplemental Guidelines to California Adjustments, the instructions for California Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), and the Business Entity tax booklets.

The instructions provided with California tax forms are a summary of California tax law and are only intended to aid taxpayers in preparing their state income tax returns. We include information that is most useful to the greatest number of taxpayers in the limited space available. It is not possible to include all requirements of the California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC) in the tax booklets. Taxpayers should not consider the tax booklets as authoritative law.

A Purpose

Use Form 541-A, Trust Accumulation of Charitable Amounts, to report a charitable or other deduction under IRC Section 642(c).

Split-interest trusts described in IRC Section 4947(a)(2) no longer file Form 541-A. Form 541-B, Charitable Remainder and Pooled Income Trusts, meets R&TC Section 18635 filing requirements for split-interest trusts. For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov, and search for 541-B instructions.

B Who Must File

A trustee must file a calendar year Form 541-A for a trust that claims a charitable or other deduction under IRC Section 642(c). Do not file Form 541-A if the following exceptions apply:

- The trustee is required by the terms of the governing instrument and applicable local law to currently distribute all of the income.
- The trust is a charitable trust described in IRC Section 4947(a)(1).
- The trust is a split-interest trust described in IRC Section 4947(a)(2).

A charitable trust is a trust which:

- Is not exempt from taxation under R&TC Section 23701d.
- Has all the unexpired interests devoted to charitable purposes described in IRC Section 170(c).
- Had a charitable contribution deduction allowed for all the unexpired interests under the R&TC.

A split-interest trust is a trust which:

- Is not exempt from taxation under R&TC Section 23701d.
- Has some of the unexpired interests devoted to one or more charitable purposes as described in IRC Section 170(c).
- Has amounts in trust for which a charitable contributions deduction was allowed under the R&TC. Pooled income funds, IRC Section 642(c)(5); charitable remainder annuity trusts, IRC Section 664(d)(1); and remainder unitrusts, IRC Section 664(d)(2) are split-interest trusts.

Simple trusts which received a letter from the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) granting exemption from tax under R&TC Section 23701d are considered to be corporations for tax purposes. The trust may be required to file Form 199, California Exempt Organization Annual Information Return.

Nonexempt charitable trusts, described in IRC Section 4947(a)(1), must file Form 199.

C When to File

File Form 541-A on or before April 15, 2013. If you need additional time to file, California grants an automatic six-month extension. If the tax return is filed by October 15, 2013, the extension will apply.

D Where to File

Mail Form 541-A to:

FRANCHISE TAX BOARD
PO BOX 942840
SACRAMENTO CA 94240-0001

E Internet Access

You can download, view, and print California tax forms and publications at ftb.ca.gov.

F Signatures

The fiduciary or officer representing the fiduciary must sign Form 541-A. Any person preparing the fiduciary's tax return for compensation, who is not a regular full-time employee of the fiduciary, must also sign Form 541-A.

Third Party Designee

If the fiduciary wants to allow the FTB to discuss its 2012 tax return with the paid preparer who signed it, check the "Yes" box in the signature area of the tax return. This authorization applies only to the individual whose signature appears in the "Paid Preparer's Use Only" section of the return. It does not apply to the firm, if any, shown in that section.

If the "Yes" box is checked, the fiduciary is authorizing the FTB to call the paid preparer to answer any questions that may arise during the processing of its tax return. The fiduciary is also authorizing the paid preparer to:

- Give the FTB any information that is missing from the return.
- Call the FTB for information about the processing of the return or the status of any related refund or payments.
- Respond to certain FTB notices about math errors, offsets, and return preparation.

The fiduciary is not authorizing the paid preparer to receive any refund check, bind the trust to anything (including any additional tax liability), or otherwise represent the trust before the FTB.

The authorization will automatically end no later than the due date (without regard to extensions) for filing the trust's 2013 tax return. If the trust wants to expand the paid preparer's authorization, get form FTB 3520, Power of Attorney Declaration for the Franchise Tax Board. If the trust wants to revoke the authorization before it ends, notify the FTB in writing or call 800.852.5711.
