

2016 Instructions for Form FTB 3800

Tax Computation for Certain Children with Unearned Income

References in these instructions are to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as of January 1, 2015, and to the California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC).

General Information

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2010, California conforms to the provision of the Small Business and Work Opportunity Act of 2007 which increased the age of children to 18 and under or a student under age 24 for elections made by parents reporting their child's interest and dividends.

Registered Domestic Partners (RDP) – For purposes of California income tax, references to a spouse, husband, or wife also refer to a California RDP, unless otherwise specified. When we use the initials RDP they refer to both a California registered domestic “partner” and a California registered domestic “partnership,” as applicable. For more information on RDPs, get FTB Pub. 737, Tax Information for Registered Domestic Partners.

Purpose

For certain children, unearned income over $2,100 is taxed at the parent's rate if the parent's rate is higher. Use form FTB 3800, Tax Computation for Certain Children with Unearned Income, to figure the child's tax.

Complete form FTB 3800 if all of the following apply:

- The child is 18 and under or a student under age 24 at the end of 2016. A child born on January 1, 1999, is considered to be age 18 at the end of 2016. A child born on January 1, 1993, is considered to be age 24 at the end of 2016.
- The child had unearned income taxable by California of more than $2,100.
- At least one of the child's parents was alive at the end of 2016.
- The child was age 18 at the end of 2016 and did not have earned income that was more than half of the child's support.

If the child uses form FTB 3800, file Form 540, California Resident Income Tax Return, or Long Form 540NR, California Nonresident or Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return.

If the child does not file form FTB 3800, figure the tax in the normal manner on the child's Form 540, or Long or Short Form 540NR.

Parents of children 18 and under or a student under age 24 at the end of 2016, may elect to include the child's unearned income on the parent's tax return. To make this election, the child must have had income only from interest and dividends. The election is not available if estimated tax payments were made in the child's name. Get form FTB 3803, Parents' Election to Report Child's Interest and Dividends, for more information. If parents make this election, the child will not have to file a California tax return or form FTB 3800.

If you elect to report your child's income on your federal income tax return, but not on your California income tax return, be sure to make an adjustment on your Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), California Adjustments, line 21f.

Specific Line Instructions

Parent's Name and Social Security Number (SSN) or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)

If federal Form 8615, Tax for Certain Children Who Have Unearned Income, was filed with the child's federal tax return, enter the name and SSN or ITIN of the same parent who was identified at the top of federal Form 8615.

If the child's parents were married to each other or in an RDP and filed a joint 2016 California tax return, enter the name and SSN or ITIN of the parent who is listed first on the joint return.

If the parents were married or in an RDP but filed separate California tax returns, enter the name and SSN or ITIN of the parent with the higher taxable income.

If the parents were unmarried, treated as unmarried for tax purposes, or separated either by a divorce or separate maintenance decree, enter the name and SSN or ITIN of the parent who had custody of the child for most of 2016.

Exception. If the custodial parent remarried or entered into an RDP and filed a joint return with the new spouse/RDP, enter the name and SSN or ITIN of the person listed first on the joint return, even if that person is not the child's parent. If the custodial parent and the new spouse/RDP filed separate California tax returns, enter the name and SSN or ITIN of the person with the higher taxable income, even if that person is not the child's parent.

If the child's parents were unmarried but lived together during the year with the child, enter the name and SSN or ITIN of the parent who had the higher taxable income.
