

2018 Instructions for Form FTB 8453-OL

California Online e-file Return Authorization for Individuals

General Information

A Purpose

Form FTB 8453-OL, California Online e-file Return Authorization for Individuals, is the signature document for self-prepared individual e-file returns. By signing form FTB 8453-OL, you declare that the return is true, correct, and complete. Additionally, you authorize the electronic transmission of the return to the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) and the execution of any designated electronic account settlement. Form FTB 8453-OL does not serve as proof of filing an electronic return – the acknowledgement containing the date of acceptance for the accepted return is that proof.

B Taxpayer Responsibilities

Before you e-file your return, you must:

- Verify all information on the form FTB 8453-OL, including social security number(s) (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number(s) (ITIN), and banking information. Reconfirm your routing and account numbers.
- Inspect a copy of the return and ensure the information is correct.
- Sign form FTB 8453-OL after you prepare the return, but before you transmit it.

After you e-file your return, you must retain the following documents for the California statute of limitations period:

- Form FTB 8453-OL
- Original Form(s) W-2, W-2G, and 1099R
- A paper copy of Form 540, Form 540 EZ, Long or Short Form 540NR
- A paper copy of your federal tax return
- A paper copy of your other state income tax return if you claimed the Other State Tax Credit. Refer to California Schedule S.

The general California statute of limitations is the later of four years from the due date of the return or four years from the date the return is filed.

(Exception: An extended statute of limitations period may apply if the taxpayer's California or federal tax returns are related to or subject to a California or a federal audit.)

We will not honor requests completed after transmission of the return. Be sure the account information is correct. Part IV – Banking Information

Individual taxpayers may request that their refund be electronically deposited into more than one checking or savings account. It's fast, safe, and convenient to have your refund directly deposited into your bank account.

You can find the routing and account numbers on a check or bank statement, or by contacting your financial institution. Do not use a deposit slip as it may contain internal routing numbers.

Lines 8 and 12 – The refund amounts you designated for direct deposit.

Line 9 and 13 – The routing number must be nine digits. The first two digits must be between 01 and 12 or 21 and 32.

Line 10 and 14 – The account number can be up to 17 characters and can include numbers and letters. Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols.

Note: Some financial institutions will not allow a joint refund to be deposited to an individual account. If the direct deposit is rejected, we will issue a paper check.

Caution: Check with your financial institution to make sure your deposit will be accepted and to get the correct routing and account numbers. The FTB is not responsible for a lost refund due to incorrect account information entered by you or your representative.

Part V – Declaration of Taxpayer(s)

An e-filed tax return is not considered complete or filed unless you sign form FTB 8453-OL before you transmit the return.

Deceased taxpayer(s) – The legal representative (e.g., beneficiary, administrator, or executor) of the deceased taxpayer's estate must sign form FTB 8453-OL before the return is transmitted.

If you are the surviving spouse/RDP and no administrator or executor has been appointed, you may still file a joint return for the year of death. Indicate next to your signature that you are the surviving spouse/RDP. Also, print "Deceased" and the date of death next to the name of the deceased taxpayer.

If you file a return and claim a refund due to a deceased taxpayer, you are certifying under penalty of perjury either that you are the legal representative of the deceased taxpayer's estate (in this case, you must attach certified copies of the letters of administration or letters testamentary to form FTB 8453-OL) or that you are entitled to the refund as the deceased's surviving relative or sole beneficiary under the provisions of the California Probate Code. You must also attach a copy of federal Form 1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, or a copy of the death certificate to form FTB 8453-OL.
