Topic (See Discussion Topics)

The second interested parties meeting regarding a proposed regulation under Revenue and Taxation Code section 23663. It is contemplated that the regulation would establish default rules regarding the allocation of credits in the case of defective elections under this section. The regulation would also authorize and establish specific procedures for alternative allocations and corrections available for certain defective elections. The Discussion Topics from the first interested parties meeting held on October 1, 2012 is also posted with this notice.

Purpose

To elicit public input on a proposed structural framework for the regulation.
