THIS BILL

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2016, this bill would modify the “qualified full-time employee” criteria specifically applicable to veterans to include a veteran who separated from service in the Armed Forces of the United States within the 36 months preceding the commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

SB 90 (Galgiani and Canella, Chapter 70, Statutes of 2013), modified AB 93 as chaptered on July 11, 2013. Specifically, SB 90, for purposes of the new hiring tax credit, modified the definition of qualified employee, excluded sexually oriented businesses from the definition of qualified taxpayer and small business, and modified the defined geographical area that the hiring credit may be generated in.

AB 93 (Assembly Committee on Budget, Chapter 69, Statutes of 2013), repealed the geographically targeted economic development area tax incentives and the New Jobs Tax Credit under the PITL and CTL, created a New Hiring Tax Credit, established the California Competes Tax Credit Committee, and created the California Competes Tax Credit under the PITL and CTL.

OTHER STATES' INFORMATION

The states surveyed include Florida, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, and New York. These states were selected due to their similarities to California's economy, business entity types, and tax laws.

Illinois offers a hiring tax credit of up to $2,500 for small businesses that hire and retain (for at least one year) new employees that are paid at least $10 per hour.

New York offers a hiring tax credit of up to $2,100 for every individual with disabilities that is hired and retained for at least two years.

Florida offers a hiring tax credit of up to 30 percent of wages paid to employees hired as long as there is an overall net increase in employment and the new hire is employed for at least three months.

Massachusetts, Michigan, and Minnesota lack a hiring credit similar to the credit being modified by this bill.

FISCAL IMPACT

This bill would not significantly impact the department's costs.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

Revenue Estimate

This bill would result in the following revenue loss:

Estimated Revenue Impact of AB 931 Assumed Enactment After June 30, 2015
2015-16	2016-17	2017-18
- $20,000	- $150,000	- $250,000

This analysis does not account for changes in employment, personal income, or gross state product that could result from this bill.

Revenue Discussion

It is estimated that $17.7 million in credits have been reserved for the New Employment Credit for the 2014 taxable year. This bill would revise the definition of “qualified full-time employee” from a veteran that separated within the 12 months preceding commencement of employment, to one that separated 36 months prior. Using data from the Department of Veterans Affairs and Bureau of Labor Statistics, it is estimated that 5 percent of the total amount of credit claimed is attributable to qualified veterans. A 15 percent increase was added to the estimate to account for the additional 24 months a new veteran could be separated from service. The estimate includes a 3 percent reduction for each year for attrition. This results in an estimated additional revenue loss of $100,000 for taxable year 2016. The additional credit usage will peak when there is a five year combined period in 2020, at approximately $600,000.

The tax year estimates are converted to fiscal years, and then rounded to arrive at the amounts reflected in the table above.
