Summary

This bill would modify the California Motion Picture Credit.

Analysis

The August 13, 2018, amendments replaced intent language with provisions related to the California Motion Picture Credit that would modify the Legislative Analyst Office's reporting requirement, clarify the California Film Commission's (Commission's) authority to allocate the credit, and appropriate funds to the Commission, as specified. This bill has no impact on the department's programs and operations or state income tax revenue.
