Summary

This bill would extend the due date of the Legislative Analyst's Office (LAO) report on the effectiveness of the California Motion Picture Credit.

Analysis

The August 8, 2018, amendments removed provisions that would have created a new California Motion Picture Credit and replaced them with provisions that would extend the LAO's reporting requirements under the existing California Motion Picture Credit. As a result, this bill no longer impacts the department's programs or operations.
