TOPIC:

California Code of Regulations, title 18, section 25136-2 (Market-Based Rules Regulation) was filed with the California Secretary of State's office on February 27, 2012, and became effective on January 1, 2011. Amendments to the Market-Based Rules Regulation were filed with the California Secretary of State's office on September 15, 2016 and became effective on January 1, 2017.

Possible additional amendments to the Market-Based Rules Regulation are currently being considered. The first Interested Parties Meeting (IPM) for possible additional proposed amendments to the Market-Based Rules Regulation was held on January, 20, 2017. A second IPM was held on June 16, 2017, a third IPM was held on May 18, 2018, a fourth IPM was held on July 19, 2019, and a fifth IPM was held on July 21, 2020. For this sixth IPM, noticed herein, additional proposed amendments have been made to the draft language. The documents for this IPM are this Notice, revised Draft Language and an Explanation of Draft Language, which can found on the department's Regulatory Activity page.

PURPOSE:

At this IPM, staff will solicit public input regarding the additional proposed amendments to the Market-Based Rules Regulation. These proposed amendments were developed after considering public input received since the fifth IPM and approaches taken in other states.

COMMENTS:

Comments may be submitted at the meeting, or may be provided to the contacts listed immediately below, by the deadline of July 5, 2021.
